4 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 4,007 sqft
Residential on 68 Acres

Rural, Richmond, KY

Step into Kentucky history with The Moberly House, a truly remarkable property listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Originally built in the early 1800s as a log cabin, this historic home has evolved into one of Madison County's most admired landmarks. The residence rests on 68 beautiful acres of rolling countryside, complete with a barn, pond, and sweeping views of the surrounding farmland. The Moberly House retains much of its original craftsmanship, featuring wide plank floors, hand-hewn beams, and authentic architectural details that reflect its early frontier heritage. Spacious rooms and timeless character make this property ideal for restoration or for those seeking a unique country estate with historic significance. Located just minutes from downtown Richmond and I-75, the property offers both privacy and convenience. Whether envisioned as a private residence, equestrian property, working farm, or heritage event venue, The Moberly House combines historic charm, natural beauty, and modern potential in one extraordinary setting.
