Rural, Lexington, KY

Turnkey Greenhouse Operation in Central Kentucky. Exceptional 28.96-acre agricultural property featuring 225,400± sq. ft. of modern greenhouses designed for high-efficiency and year-round cultivation. A premier opportunity for commercial vegetable, flower or specialty crop hydroponic/aquaponic producers, this property is fully equipped and ready for immediate operation. The sale includes all equipment, infrastructure, and environmental systems, providing a complete turnkey solution for consistent, high-quality production. Fertile Central Kentucky soils, ample water resources including a high volume well, and a favorable growing climate create an ideal foundation for sustained yields and long-term success. Whether expanding an existing enterprise or launching a new controlled-environment agriculture venture, this property offers the perfect combination of scale, technology, and proven productivity in one of Kentucky's most desirable growing regions.
