Farm on 216 Acres

Rural, Carlisle, KY

Exceptional 216-acre equine farm in the heart of Bourbon County, located on scenic Cane Ridge Road in Paris, Kentucky—an area renowned for world-class horse operations. Designed with functionality and versatility in mind, the property is well-suited for training, boarding, or breeding. The centerpiece is a 150' x 100' steel-framed indoor riding arena, ideal for year-round riding and training. A converted 10-stall barn offers immediate stabling, complemented by additional farm structures including a tobacco barn for hay storage, hoop barn, and a 24' x 40' metal building with concrete floor for equipment or feed. Water is abundant and thoughtfully distributed, with three live springs, multiple ponds, and auto waterers throughout the farm, supporting efficient pasture management and livestock care. The property also includes a cabin currently utilized as a tack room, with potential for office or staff use. Gently rolling acreage offers excellent pasture layout potential for paddocks, turnout, and further equine improvements. A rare opportunity to acquire a well-located horse farm in one of Kentucky's most desirable equine regions.
